ADDRESS Adopted by the American Party. ATITS ANNUAL MEETING. June, 1857.

ADDRESS. Called by the passing away of another year to meet the members of the American party in National Council, the occasion demands a reaffirma-tion of onropinions. We are ready to-day as aloretime to give a reason for the faith that is in us, and as ready to day as ever before to stand fast by our vows of devotion to our whole country Neither dismayed by defeat, nor disheart try Neither dismayed by defeat, nor disheart ened by opposition—neither discouraged by the past, nor without hope for the future—we meet together both to counsel one with another, and to show to the people of the United States by our presence and our numbers here in open conven tion that as a party we are hopeful and determined as to our future course of action.

The dominant party at the North and the dominant party at the South, by appeals made to sections of country and the passions of the day, are temporarily successful. But a temporary triumph because of one or many defeats.

Thousands who left our ranks in November, the hope. Where there was a pledge to secure, and the power to effect a pure ballot box—the want of which is one of the great evils of the Other questions of great importance though of constitution and by the laws, were entitled to Who can arrest these evils and restore the gov-

In no instance that we can recall to mind have wholesome reforms which are essential either to of opinion which belongs to every Common-an inteligent or honest exercise of the rights of wealth of the Republic, and to every citizen in the Even where an attempt has been Union? made, as in New York, to seeure a practical reform under the naturalization laws, so that while the change would not extend the five years' residence previous to naturalization provided by the laws of the United States, it would, nevertheless, secure a small portion of this limited residence before the alien was alowed to vote, the attempt has failed, by the combined opposition of dial measures for admitted great public evils, there has also been enacted in New York a suceessful measure looking to such an amendment of the Constitution as would secure a general system of suffrage to the negroes of the State. Thus, in one part of the Union a State Constitution is opened to sustain the question of negro suffrage, while in another part of the Union the alien has had conferred upon him privileges wholly un known to the native-born eitizen. To day a foreign pauper or a foreign criminal, driven or banished too, are hopeful and heartful of the great fun the pest or prison houses of Europe, is made in ture all things, and regardless of his residence in the his birth To-morrow, again, States in another section of the country become revolutionary in their plans of opposition to the Federal Government, and exhaust their patriotism and labor in measures of mere speciality and favor for the negro.

We seek to avoid such analomies of legislation in both our Federal and State governments .-Their tendency is neither toward humanity nor merey. They benefit neither the white nor the black rave and, whether well meant or ill meant, result in that spirit of strife and uncharitableness in different States and among different classes of people which the true men of the country cannot Higher aims and nobler objects animate the American party. We know of no political differences between the rights of the North and the rights of the South. All are subordinate to the constitution of our common country. The unior of the States, the rights of the States, the privileges of the people in the States, and under the Union, is our chief glory and our greatest good.-When differences of opinion come, as come they will, they must be settled, not by crimination and hate, but by reference to that great principle of com mon right and common protection-THE CONSTI TUTION OF THE UNITED STATES; and if there shall unforunately again be differences of opinion as to what is granted and what is denied by the constitution, the judiciary of the land, through the authorized courts of the nation, can alone make up and decide the final issue. The constitution and the law must, therefore, at all times and in all places become our rule of action. Toleration of opinion, the freedom of speech by to assemble and petition the government fo redress of grievances, are among these specified constitutional personal rights, and cannot be abridged except as the obuse of these privleges is restrained by the laws of the land. Equally explicit are the rights of the States over their own territories, and interference with them becomes both a public abuse of power and an act of per-sonal impertinence. If all men in all sections of somar imperionence. That men in an sections of the country, could realize where their powers commence, and where they cease—if they could understand that they are no more responsible for other men's sins than they are secure in their own self assumed virtues, all would be comparatively well.

There are many and vitai questions upon which other subjects should be subordinate. They are, in brief, condensed in the following spirit of our National Platform. We hold, for example, as cardinal maxims of public justice and private duty, to the following rule of faith and actton:

1st. The Federal Union must be maintain

2d. The reserved rights of the States must be aspected
3d. The decisions of the Supreme Court must

10th The naturalization laws must be amend

11th "Squatter Sovereignty" and alien suff-rage must be repudiated.

12th Americans must rule America.
There is nothing here not taught in the Constitution of the United States, and nothing here repugnant to the spirit and letter of that instrument f liberty and law. The provision of the Consti rictory secured by passion give evidence of a true attachment to principle. A true soldier will never be dishearted in sustaining a good cause born imposes a nine years' residence, after na-turalization, as qualification of a candidate for two first offices in the gift of the people in No vember last may enjoy the consciousness of an honest work well meant and well done. The honest work well meant and well done. They neither counted the cost of defeat nor faltered in the discharge of a great public date. the discharge of a great public duty, and had the thousands of men who agreed with them in trom any provision of the Constitution, we seek opinion as to the justice of their principles and to restore a respect for its framers, and an entire the fitness of their candidate acted upon the same and hearty obedience to its provisions. It is, convictions of public duty, the result would have above and beyond all other records of political been far different. At the North, tens of thou-of thousands voted for Mr. Buchanan at the south upon the plea that a vote for Mr. Fillmore past, but which seems to have outlived its conwould seemre the election of the candidate of the sistency, its usefulness, and its virtues. We trace it, however, as one of the national desired to the country or their associates in principles. ural ills incident to that system of administration which seeks to fill the nation with criminals, paudrawn away by the temporary expedients and passions of the hour, have returned to the fold of the American party. They have been taught in the bitter school of experience that the word of murders, the cruel banishments, the beastly inpromise may be made to the ear and broken to tereourse, to that unnatural indifference to those posed to conduct the matter, as usual, at his own desk, without interrupting the business of the Court. The Judge replied that he knew no business more important than giving a man the full rights of an American citizen, and that he would himself conduct the proceedings in open

The applicant thereupon produced his certificate of intention and his witnesses as to resi dence, good character, &c. After which the following colloquy ensued:

Judge—You say you prefer living in this country to returning to Ireland; will you tell me

Pat-This is a land of liberty, yer Honor. Judge-You show that you are attached to our institution; what are they?

Pat-(No answer.) Judge—Who governs the country? Pat—The President, sure.

Judge-Who makes the laws? Pat-Sich as yer honor. Judge-No; I only administer the laws. Who governs this State? Judge-Mr. Clerk, hand me the blank form of the Naturalization Oath. [This being handed to the Court, he addressed the applicant again.] There is in this oath a clause by which you are to swear that you will support the Constitution of the Pat-()h, yes, yer Honor! I'm ready to swear to that. Judge-Did you ever read that Constitution?

Pat-No, yer Honor. Judge-Or a word of it?

Pat-No, yer Honor.
Judge-Did you ever hear a word of it read?

Pat-No, yer Honor. Judge-Can you read and write?

Judge—Do you know one word that is in the Constitution of the United States?

Pat-Indeed and I do not, yer honor.
Judge-You have lived in this country nearly six years; you can read and write, and you have been all this time intending to become a citizen here, yet you have never taken the trouble to learn or know one word of the instrument you are now ready to take a solemn oath to support. American born here, and living here until he is twenty one years of age, learns more or less of the Constitution under which he lives, as well as of the rights and duties of citizenship. At any rate, whether he does this or not, he is presumed to have douc it, and therefore the laws of the land give him the right to vote without the formality of an oath; it is his birth right. To those not born on the soil, the law applys a different rule, and requires from them the oath now under consideration in your case. I hold, that the due, even the decent, administration of that oath de-pends in part on the condition that the applicant should at least understand it; and I will allow such an abuse of the law as would be committed by your taking that oath in your presen ces. You cannot be naturalized by this

The above, which is an exact relation of an actual occurrence, touches the very root of this matter of Naturalization, and of course applies to all nationalities as well as that of the subject of the story. The evils of which the "American' party profess to seek the cure, are the consequences of the abuse of the Naturalization Laws, not their proper administration. Had those laws been always, and were they now, administered with the integrity of purpose and comuon sense view of their requirements, exhibited by Judge Gould, there would be little ground of objection, if any, to the effect of their operation. The scattered remnants of the Know Nothing party may make themselves consistently useful in their day and generation, by endeavoring to se eure the universal application of the sound and simple principles of which this case is an expo

Another Arrest for Harboring Slaves-A CHARGE OF PERJURY.—The case of Mr. Wait, tried in the U.S. District Court on Tuesday, on an indictment for harboring the slaves of Mr. Million, threatens to lead to much more litigation, in the shape of criminal prosecutions. Two have already been commenced with others in prospect.

Yesterday morning Squire B. Million made oath, before U. S. Commissioner George M. Lee, that James Puntney, a witness on the trial of Wait, "did, about the 20th of September, 1856, harbor and conceal eight fugitives from labor, so as to prevent, their delivery and arrest by their claimant and master, to whom they owed scrvice. The warrant was placed in the hands of Deputy U. S. Marshal Churchill, who took Mr. Puntney Previous to this arrest however, Mr. William

Shaw, who was the principal witness for the de fence, on Tuesday, swore out a warrant against Squire B. Million for committing wilful perjury, in swearing positively to certain statements on the trial of Wait, especially in denying that he gave the slaves permission to come into Ohio .-It is asserted by the complainant that Mr. Million dmitted, while the jury were out, that the negro Lewis told him that he should teave Kentucky the night he did, and that there was an agreement that the negro should return, or the master should come after him, as soon as some pecuniary trou bles were ended. This is the basis of the charge of perjury, and upon which Mr. Million was arrested by Deputy Marshal Churchill.

Both parties, with their counsel, Mr. Jolliffe for Mr. Puntney, and Judge Spooner for Mr. Million, appeared yesterday afternoon before Commission er Lee, who entered upon an examination of the charge against Mr. Million, which resulted in the discharge of the accused by the Commissioner. The ease of Mr. Puntney was postponed until the 18th inst., and the defendant required to give bail in $500. Bonds in the same amount were requird of Mr. Million, as prosecuting witness .- Cin.

It was rumored that the the 10th and 5th lnfantry and the Batteries of Artillery would go over and take possession of a Mormon village on Bear riv er, for winter quarters. It is said that the Dra goons had a month's supply of corn, at half allowance, and not a particle of grass. With snow on the ground at that, it seems like madness for them to proceed beyond Laramire—certainly such a step could only be justified in view of the prospect of actual hostilities this winter, of which no one at this distance can judge.

There was probably never before, any portion of our army subjected to such privations and to whom the future presents such a gloomy picture the soldier, than the "Army for Utah." The Commauder, Col. We doubt if Col. Johnston will be able, when whole force is concentrated, to muster over one thousand men for duty. Such an army so far from the base-line, is too small to cope long with vigorous resistance. The threatening aspect of affairs on our West Congress to raise new regiments early in the ap by no means commensurate with the extensive line of defense, particularly the Western portion. Should danger menace in Utah or Kansas—the troops in Florida, actively engaged in Iudian warfare, must be transported rapidly to meet the new exigency, at an enormous expense, the change of limate and exposure operating disastrously to its efficiency whereas, should our army be adequate ly increased (and the condition of our Western defenses argues strongly, for several additional mounted Regiments) by Cougress this winter in time for organization for the field in the spring the amount, annually saved in the transportation of troops from point to point, which would then be unnecessary, would go far towards supporting the increase. But the great desideratum thereby gained, would be security to emigration and protection to the hardy frontier settlers. Our army if full, would not exceed fifteen thousand. Surely can't such a country as ours afford 20,000?

The proposition of establishing a provisiona Government was before the convention, and it was thought by many that steps would be taken to this end, so as to destroy the efficacy and existence of the free State Legislature.

At last accounts Gov. Walker was at Leaven worth, and a rumor was there current that he had in conjunction with George Sanders, purchased several hundred acres of the Fort Leavenwort military reservation at a nominal figure. Walker is opposed to the constitutional convention, as Calhoun, the leading spirit and officer, is openly hostile to him.

There was some talk of having a special scs on of the newly elected Legislature, and Walk er had signified his willingness to call them to gether if such was their desire. It was uncertain whether this action would be resolved upon. Emigration is flocking to the Territory, and the "hard times" had not been felt to any extent. Leavenworth is progressing finely, and begins to wear the air of a substantial city.

Although everything is at present quict in the territory, there is no telling how loug it will last. It is probable that the free-state party will soon hold a convention, to decide upon the best policy to pursue in reference to the pro-slavery cousti-The affairs of Kansas are yet far from settled.

> Alleged Infanticide.—A young woman named Mahala Drake, was arrested on Monday, 2d inst., by officer Crafte, and brought before Esqrs. Miler and Holeman on a charge of having conceal ed the birth of her infant bastard child, so that t might not be known whether it was boru dead

It appears, from the evidence reported, that a child was boru somewhere on the premises about the 21st of June, 1-56, and that the accused had been observed by several persons prior to that time to be enciente. Some three or four days after the above date, the dead body of an inlant child was found in her father's tohacco barn, covered up in some flax. But there seems to have en no evidence that the mother had secreted the child there, and none tending to show that she was in any way concerned in it

The witness who found the body never disclos ed the fact until the day the arrest was made and many are led to believe that he may not be guiltless in the matter himself. The girl was held to appear on Monday last, in the Circuit Court, to answer the charge. Three other persons were arrested as accessaries, but were dismissed, there being no evidence against them -Elizabethtone Intelligencer.

PRESENTMENT AGAINST THE SOUTH CAROLINA COL LEGE .- The grand jury of Abbeville, S. C., for the fall term, made the following presentment, which the Anderson True Carolinian thinks is ather overstopping their legitimate sphere:

That the South Carolina College, under its resent Faculty, is not fulfilling the design had in view in its organization by the Legislature. The present Faculty have shown themselves utterly incapable of governing the students, and the grand jury arc really surprised that the Trus tees should have replaced them in their professorships, after having so justly lurned them out They would recommend, therefore, that, until the College be placed under the coutrol of a Facult capable of governing it, the annual appropriation thereto be withheld. > RENCOUNTER-MAN KILLED .- On Monday evening a rencounter occurred on board the steamer Kate Frisbee, at Memphis, between Ma-or Thomas Mull and W. R. Hunt, in which the former gentleman lost his life, having been shot through the heart with a pistol in the hands of the latter. Major Mull fired two or three times before Hunt shot him, one of the balls from his pistol passing through Hunt's clothes and grazing his skin. Mull expired in a few moments after receiving the shot, and Hunt gave himself up to the officers of the law. Both of the parties to this unfortunate affair are highly respectable. Maj. Mull formerly resided in Marshall county, Mississippi, and several times represented that county in the State Legislature. He had recent-v removed with his family to Memphis. Mr. Hunt is a gentleman of large means and resides at Memphis. Some half dozen shots were fired during the affray. A G HODGES, Frankfort Ky. NOVEMBER, 1857.

IT So much has been written and published lemmeratory of Cassens M. Clay, and, according to his 4 wn account, his views on the subject of al very have had so requently and so ressly nisrepresented, that we deem it the merest act of ustice to him to let him have the benefit of his coun exposition of Just a sition through our paper, although unsolicited by him. As his reputation is not on vea-extensive with the State but also with the Union, and as many of our readers would, no doubt, wish to know exactly how he stands on the peculiar institution, we re-publish the obliving correspondence from the Washing tun Republic ' His third reason for opposing the ra hea Abolitionists-because if such an issue as extermination should ever threaten either race. I am for my own, the white race, agains all other races on earth"-speaks the true Ken tucky sentiment, and must prove a severe dose to the raving zealots of the Garrisia School, who oven.v declare their sympathy with the blacks in ·heir ansurrectionary movements After all, we hope that Mr. Clay is not near so but politically as he has been represented to be.

fle s caks of himself as being "constitutional ly" opposed to slavery. The Constitution of Kentucky guarantees to their owners the posses sion of shave property and prohibits the Legisla ture from abolishing it; there can, then, be no use in agitating the subject in this State, since it cannot be constitutionally gotten rid of except. by the voluntary act of slaveholders. Chief Justice Taney has declared that in his opinion, Conlegislate muon the subject in the Territories, so that, accepting the Chief Justice's opinion as the decision of the Court a man of ability and mature mind. In the wide there is no use in agitating the subject in its national aspect, since nothing eau "constitutional-Iv" be done against the institution by Congress. All that Mr Clay, and those in this State who agree with him, can "constitutionally" do against the system is, to emmeipate their own slaves under the provisions of the Constitution, or, to emi grate to the Territories and vote against its introduction into their limits. This is, after all, the only, as it is the most effectual way, of preventing its extension, and, moreover, it would relieve the people of the slave States of a great deal of useless trouble and vexation. But we do not propose entering into any discussion of the sulc ject We regret that a man of Mr Clay's un doubted abilities is not better disposed towards the institution, but, at the same time, we are rejojeed that he is not near so radical as we once thought him to be. Here is the correspondence referred to; it administers a fitting rebuke to Fee and others, who have been using Mr Clay's name for their own vile purposes:

From the Washington Republic.] INTERESTING CORRESPONDENCE.-We have reecived for publication the following correspondence. It will command the wide interest and attention with which everything is received by the public from Cassius M Clay, than whom a more gallant spirit does not live:

OCTOBER, 8, 1857.

To the Editors of the Republic: The enclosed expressiondence was not designed, when written, for publication; but as Mr. Davis's letter evidently was intended to clicit from me something for general explanation, I have thought it best, and no breach of confidence, to send his letter and this reply at once to the press.

Your obedient servant, C. M. CLAY.

CABIN CREEK, Lewis Co., Ky., Friday, October 2, 1857 Duar Sir: In common with multitudes of th friende of freedom. I have learned with regre the disturbances which have taken place in Rock e univ. and I was also sorry to learn through the Cincinnati Commercial that you die not feel at liberty to interpose your powerful in flaence for the maintenance of that freedom of speech which has been enjoyed through the bless ing of Providence on your exertions; and I fear that friends in the Northern States will misappre hend your withdrawal of aid from Brother Fee and infer that your zeal is slackening in the eanse I fear, too, that what you say about Mr. F's. position tending to revolution and insurrection nav inflame the male

But, of course, my impressions come from re ports received from that region, and I know not the state of things as well as one on the ground. Would the determination on your part to seeme to him the right of speech produce the impression that you endorsed the principles of the radical abolitionists? I think unt. The slaveholders and proslavery men who met a few weeks ago in Mad-the grand jury not to bring in a bill against him. I wish, sir, you would use your influence in be half of the unrestrained utterance of what this preciate the action, and that your magnanimity in this respect would not be lost on the South.

I should be happy to hear from you soon.
Respectfully,
JAMES S. DAVIS.

Остовек 8, 1857. Rev. and Dear Sir: Your favor of the 2d inst. upon the subject of the late mobs in Rockcastle county, Kentucky, prefering to lie myself under misapprehension rather than do anything which might seem calculated to increase the em-John G. Fee. But since you put direct questions to me, with regard to our relative positions, I do

In the first place, then, I did not withuraw in the first place, then, I did not withuraw in the first place, then, I did not withuraw in the first place, then, I did not withuraw in the first place, then, I did not withuraw in the first place, then, I did not withuraw in the first place, then, I did not withuraw in the first place, then, I did not withuraw in the first place, then, I did not withuraw in the first place, then, I did not withuraw in the first place, then, I did not withuraw in the first place, then, I did not withuraw in the first place, then, I did not withuraw in the first place, then, I did not withuraw in the first place, then, I did not withuraw in the first place, then first place, then first place is the first place. We also show that the first place is the first place is the first place is the first place is the first place. We also show the first place is the first pla acted together, from before 1°48, upon the basis of constitutional opposition to slavery. On the 4th of July, 1°56, against my argent advice and the bublicly from the stump, not expressions to the press of Kentucky for the expressions to the press of Kentucky for the expressions to the press of Kentucky for the peditician, made avowal in substance of the octiones of the Radical Abolitionists. That is, as I understand him, slavery being contrary to the righer law-the law of nature and of God-is no law," unconstitutional, and void, and ought not to be enforced by judge or citizen. In consequence of this separation from the Republican earty, the Central Club of our State called a ceiting and elected another corresponding secre tary in Mr. Fee's stead, he being present, and silent, at the meeting in taking his position, hen he separated himself from me and my par y; and now, when his own action brings hin nto trouble, to blame me is unjust and absurd. You complain that I characterize "Radicalism" s "revolutionary and insurrectionary." I think t is. And, having induced some of our ei against slavery, I have felt it my highest duty to keep them upon safe and lega' grounds. The Radicals propose a fundamen tal change in our Government, and in a way not rescribed by the Constitution, but in violation of . . . . he distinguished head and front of the Rad cal Abolitionists, the Hou. Gerrit Smith, in his ate Chicago speech, expressly declares the move "revolutionary" one. Now, looking upon Mr "revolutionary" one. Now, looking upon Mr ce's position as such, I am against it, and, whilst I denounce all mobs, I can give him neithe "aid nor comfort." To talk of maintaing the lib erty of speech in such connection, without endorsing his dectrines, is absurd. Such a propa er debate, but a state of revolution and insurrec ion against "the powers that be."

If there is "no law," moral, divine, nor lin am, to hold the slave, then the slave is as free is the master. If the slave is as free as the master, he has a right to resist the master. If he lays the master, he is acting under moral and le al self detense, and not only does not deserve mislment by the courts or otherwise, but car emand, and ought to receive "aid and comfort rom every radical abolitionist the world over.-It all this is not "insurrectonary and revolution and indictable, and punishable with deatl under our statute, whenever an overt act on the part of the slave shall give fact to theory, then I know nothing of law or logic. To all this I am opposed, now, in the pas, and in the future .-First, because I am in favor of a praceable and fraterual solution of the slave question. History teaches me that political institutions grow and are not made: and sudden changes have always been the cause of a retrocession, and not progress. un ready to make sacrifices, not for coups de ualn, but for the gradual and stable advancement of civilization and humanity. Second, because my regard for the black race would lead me to de recate an issue which, in my judgment, would brive them to the wall. Third, because if such ssue as extermination shoul lever threaten either ace, I am for my own, the white race, against all other races on earth.

I have thus auswered you frankly and fully. 1 stand now, where I have always stood, upon Republican ground, the rule of the majority, and constitutional opposition to slavery. And having spent fortune and lost friends and easte and reeatedly risked my life in this defense of the onstitutional liberty of the whole human race, I eel that I can afford to look with contempt upon the idea that I am "slackening in my zeal," be cause I do not choose to follow the lead of every oue, who, however conscientious, may jeopard good cause by fanaticism or folly,

With regard to Mr. Fee personally, I entertain toward him the most friendly feelings. I consider er him honest and "godly," as you say verge of life, destiny separates us; hc, and those who act with him, must reap the good and evil of Your ob't serv't, their deeds!

The two men, named Nicholson, father and son, who were arrested in this city last week for passing counterfeit bank notes were tried or Friday before the County Judge. The first warrant ngainst them charged them with passing counterfeit money, and their lawyers asked the court to dismiss them on the ground that the allegation was false, inasmuch as bank notes are not money. This was done, but immediately moth er warrant properly worded was issued, and they were at once re arrested. The court required go for less than that amount, but that if an adbail to the amount of five hundred dollars each for their appearance at the next term of the Cirenit Conrt. At last accounts they had not been able to procure the bail, and were lying in jail ham to the United States seven years ago for awaiting their trial.

IF The Nashville Banner, noticing the recent election of U.S. Senators by the Legislature of that State, thus refers to the Hon. James C. Jones, whose place has been supplied by the election of Gov. Johnson: "One thing in his election is somewhat remarkable. One of the Scuators whose places were to be filled was not voted for by a solitary individual in either party. "None were so poor as to do him reverence." His name was never mentioned. He now has learned what reward a politician may expect by turning his back upon his own friends, and easting in his lot with the enemy. He is indeed a baukrupt, and in the pre ent state of parties he has nothing to hope for in the future."

By all mean go to Humphrey for your lurs.

IF In the Treasury report for 1855, the following statement of the comparative values of the raw material and manufactmed product was for cibly and clearly presented: "At present prices our cotton crop will yield an annual product of $72,000,000, and the manufactored labric $501, 000,000, furnishing profits abroad to thousands o capitalists, and wages to hundreds of thousands of the working classes, all of whom would be deeply injured by any disturbance, growing out of a state of war, to the direct and adequate sup ply of the raw material."

INDEBTEDNESS OF ST PAUL -The St. Paul Adrertiser says at the present time there is not less than $600,000 of overdue and protested paper deposited by eastern creditors in the banks of that city; that the indebteduess in St. Paul to banks done, due or to become due in six mouths, is $750,000 more, while the eastern indebtedness n the merchants and others to mature in the same period, is 1,200,000. That is, the city owes $2, 500,1900, of which $1,500,000 is due to the east Other towns in the Territory are similarly involved

THE TONAWANDA INDIANS .- By a recent treaty between the Tonawanda Indians and the United States Government, the difficulties which have existed are definitely settled, and the Indians will be enabled to retain about one half of their reservation of 12,800 acres In return the Indians relinquish their Kausas and other Western claims arising from the treaties of 1838 and 1842, and they also relinquish the monies appropriated for their removal and support during the first year of their residence West.

They receive $256,000, a portion of which goes to satisfy claims upon their ancient homestead, and the rest to be invested in U.S. stocks for their

IMPORTED STOCK FOR On-o.-The Derby Plains Importing Company shipped a large collection of stock from Liverpool on the 2d of October. The horses numbered twelve, including two celebrated racers, Mickey Free and Bonny Scotland. The latter was shipped for the stables of Caja. Cornish, New York. Four of the most approved Freuch Draught horses were in the lot. Also a thorough bred mare from the stud of Sir Tattor Sykes. The stock altogether is of great value some of the horses being valued as high as 1000 guineas ($5,000.)

The Military Asylum at Harrodsburg, (formerly Graham's Springs,) was offered by the Government at public sale on Thursday last, but did not find a purchaser. July Proclamation.

The season has again arrived, when in obedience to established custom, it is deemed proper to set apart a day for the throne of our Heavenly Father, and render thanks for the countless blessings bestowed upon them. We have been long in the enjoyment of unparalleled prosperity, and although the present be a period of severe commercial distress, under Almighty guidance amid every apparent calamity, there is a moral power which makes it the minister of his will, and which is able "to overcome every evil with good " During the past season peace and happiness have pervaded the land. The Providence of Heaven has given us repose "in secure habitations and amid quiet resting places." We have been more than ordinarily blessed with good health. The earth has yielded bounteously, and its fruits have been garnered by the unfettered hand of industry. Our country is teeming with abundance, and the great body of our people are free from suffering.

For these and all other blessings, we are indebted to the goodness and mercy STARTANDLES, in whole, half and quarter boxes, of God, and it becomes us to bow before the throne of mercy with hearts filled with thankfulness and gratitude.

Wherefore, I, C. S. MOREHEAD, ilo hereby set upart and appoint Thursday, THE 26th DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1857, to he observed as a day of public thanksgiving and prayer, and do hereby recommend and request the people of Kentucky to observe

In testimony, whereof, I have set my hand and caused the seal of the Commonwealth to be affixed this 4th day of November, 1857, and in the 66th year of the Commonwealth.

By the Governor: C. S. MOREHEAD. Mason Brown, Secretary of State.
